NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING REGARDING PROPOSED ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST, ORDER FOR RESTITUTION, FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES, OF REVOCATION, AND FOR OTHER AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

NOTICE: EACH RESPONDENT HAS 10 DAYS TO REQUEST A HEARING
EACH RESPONDENT HAS 30 DAYS TO FILE AN ANSWER

The Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") alleges that respondents MAYRA JEANETTE ANGULO ("ANGULO") and MARK ISLAS ("ISLAS"), individually and doing business as International Financial Services Group ("IFS GROUP") have engaged in acts, practices, and transactions that constitute violations of the Securities Act of Arizona, A.R.S. § 44-1801 et seq. ("Securities Act").

I.

JURISDICTION

1. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the Arizona Constitution and the Securities Act.

II.

RESPONDENTS

- 2. ANGULO was at all pertinent times a registered securities salesman in Arizona since on or about January 1, 1992, CRD# 2221337, operating from Tucson, Arizona. At all times pertinent to this action, ANGULO was registered in Arizona in association with Woodbury Financial Services, Inc. ("Woodbury"), a subsidiary company of The Hartford, from December 13, 2001, until November 8, 2007, when Woodbury discharged ANGULO for violating company policy. ANGULO was also at all pertinent times licensed as an insurance producer with the Arizona Department of Insurance.
- 3. ISLAS was at all pertinent times a registered securities salesman in Arizona since on or about May 11, 1989, CRD# 1953882, operating from Tucson, Arizona. At all times pertinent to this action, ISLAS was registered in Arizona in association with Woodbury, from March 8, 2001, until November 8, 2007, when Woodbury discharged ISLAS for violating company policy. ISLAS was also at all pertinent times licensed as an insurance producer with the Arizona Department of Insurance.
- 4. At all times relevant, ANGULO and ISLAS were married to one another, until August 21, 2007.
- 5. At all times relevant, ANGULO and ISLAS were acting for their own benefit and for the benefit or in furtherance of Respondents' marital community.
 - 6. ANGULO and ISLAS may be referred to collectively as "Respondents".

III.

FACTS

7. ANGULO and ISLAS operated as a team from Tucson, Arizona, engaging in the offer and sale of securities in the form of money market funds, i.e., securities, through Woodbury, and variable annuities and variable life insurance products, i.e., securities, through Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company ("Hartford").

- 8. Until they divorced, Respondents conducted their securities and insurance business through their dba, IFS GROUP. ANGULO primarily offered and sold money market funds; ISLAS primarily sold variable annuities and variable life contracts.
- 9. Although most of Respondents' customers were residents of Mexico, Respondents opened brokerage accounts for some of these customers using Arizona post office boxes as the customers' addresses, and in some instances used the same post office box for several customers.
- 10. Respondents controlled the Arizona post office boxes and used them to receive payments from customers for the purchase of the securities.
- 11. Respondents instructed some customers to make payments for securities directly to IFS GROUP, and to mail their checks to IFS GROUP in Tucson, Arizona.
- 12. Respondents intercepted some customer premium payments from the Arizona post office boxes, and intercepted customer account statements, information notices, and brokerage money market account checkbooks.
- 13. In some instances, Respondents misappropriated customers' money intended to purchase money market securities or to make premium payments on the variable securities products.
- 14. In other instances, Respondents failed to forward customers' premium payments to Hartford, causing policies to lapse or terminate without customers' knowledge.
- 15. Respondents intercepted some customer brokerage account statements from the Arizona post office boxes, and altered the statements to reflect purported growing cash value in the customers' money market securities accounts.
- 16. Respondents used customers' money market account check books to withdraw customer funds from the customers' accounts for Respondents' own purposes, including paying funds to themselves or to Respondents' family members, associates, or other customers.
- 17. In some instances Respondents used customers' funds to make minimal payments to cover premiums for lapsed policies.

- 18. In some instances, Respondents told customers that their funds were used to purchase securities that were paying the customers interest when, in fact, purported "interest" payments were paid from the customers' own money market brokerage accounts.
- 19. One of Respondents' customers, who resided in both Mexico and Arizona, complained to Hartford about the handling of her account, which initiated an investigation by the dealer.
- 20. To date, investigation of Respondents' fraudulent conduct has revealed four Arizona residents who lost approximately $540,000.00 in connection with the sale of money market securities and variable life and annuity products. Woodbury has reimbursed the losses of these four customers.

IV.
